Criteria for entry:

- The author must be born on or after 31st December 1988.
- The essay must be in English, and not more than 9000 words in length (excluding any notes, references, bibliography and summary).
- It must be the original work of the person submitting it, and be unpublished at the time of entry,
- The submission must be prefaced by a short summary of between 100–150 words.
- The submission should include a bibliography and be page-numbered throughout. Citations and quotations must be fully referenced.
- Previous entrants can enter again, but previous winners cannot.

How to enter

For each entry, please complete and sign the form below. Return it either with four copies of the essay to the Society at the address below, or submit a scanned copy alongside a single digital copy in Adobe Acrobat (pdf) format to mias.uk@ibnarabisociety.org. Submissions are invited from June 2023.

Conditions of entry

There will be three judges. In all matters the decision of the judges shall be final. The Society reserves the right not to award a prize if in the opinion of the judges no essay entered is of the required standard. The Society has the first right to publish any or all of the entries.

Essays submitted should be double-spaced, with the author’s name on the first page. We will acknowledge receipt by e-mail.
